Decide as follows:

Article 1. Areas of Corporation

The areas of cooperation shall include, subject to mutual consent, any activity or program at either institution as considered feasible and desirable on either side in order to foster and develop the cooperative academic relationship between the two Parties.

Article 2. Modes of Cooperation

The implementation of research and study programs determined in conformity with Article 1 may be carried out through the joint realization of research projects and teaching programs at the location of both Parties, according to the modalities specified in Article 4 of this MoU.

More specifically, these are the modes of cooperation that may be used in a separate agreement to which the Parties agree to, included the following:

- exchange of scholars;
- joint research projects;
- joint teaching and/or supervision of students;
- joint participation in workshops and/or conference days;
- student mobility and prospective exchange of students (as may be mutually agreed upon); and
- participation of students in study abroad programs hosted by each institution.

Article 3. Liaison

Where needed, the Parties will appoint a faculty member as coordinator of the activities entailed in this MoU who will also be responsible for facilitating and maintaining communication with the other Party for that purpose.

Article 4. Specific Cooperation Agreements

Nothing in this MoU shall be construed as creating any legal or financial relationship or commitment between the two Parties.

The terms of collaboration and the necessary funding for each program and activity shall be mutually negotiated, discussed and agreed upon in writing by both Parties in separate specific cooperation agreements prior to the initiation of any particular program or activity. Each Party will designate where needed, a lead coordinator for the activities or programs of potential cooperation that may form the basis for specific cooperation agreements to be executed between the Parties.

Besides implementation modalities specifying academic, organizational, technical and financial aspects, specific cooperation agreements shall contain terms relating to intellectual property rights and procedures for publication etc.

Article 5. Intellectual Property

In the event of any dispute regarding intellectual property, it shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of country where the dispute arises, so long as the laws do not violate the other country's regulations.

Article 6. Disclosure Of Confidential Data

If either Party wishes to disclose confidential data and/or information resulting from the cooperation activities under this MoU to any third party, the disclosing Party must obtain prior consent from the other Party before any disclosure can be made. Consent is not to be unreasonably withheld.

Article 7. Principles

All participants will be treated in the same non-discriminatory manner in carrying out the provisions of the MoU, subject to the provisions of the policies and requirements of each of the Party.

Article 8. Terms of Cooperation

8.1. Duration

This MoU shall commence on the later of the two dates of signature of the Parties, this being the date when both Parties have duly accepted the conditions laid down in this MoU. The MoU shall be in force for five (5) years and may be renewed or extended by mutual written consent of the authorized officials of the Parties to it.

8.2. Amendments

Any amendment and/or modification of the MoU will require written approval of both and shall be appended hereto.

8.3. Termination For Convenience

Either Party reserves the right to terminate this MoU at any time, for any or no reason, subject to ninety (90) days prior written notice to the other Party hereto. Any program or activity that has already commenced pursuant to specific cooperation agreements executed between the Parties hereto, if executed, shall survive termination of this MoU and be completed to the best of both Parties abilities pursuant and subject to the terms of the relevant specific cooperation agreement.

Article 9. Disagreement Resolution

In the event of differing interpretations of the provisions of this MoU, the Parties shall endeavour with good faith to reach an amicable solution through mutual consultation and negotiation. If such efforts fail to produce a mutually acceptable resolution, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration.

This MoU is drafted in 2 original copies in English with identical content.
